

No Lost Generation (NLG) Student Initiative - Returning Student Participant

Project Title	No Lost Generation (NLG) Student Initiative - Returning Student Participant
Project Summary	Connect your campus with the NLG Student Initiative network nationwide. Exchange ideas on how to mobilize students across campuses to participate in raising awareness about the global refugee crisis and ensure there is "No Lost Generation" of refugees.
Country	United States

Project Description

Prior experience with the No Lost Generation (NLG) Student Initiative is required to apply for this position, including participants in NLG activities on any campus with an active student group.

Student Participants will assist with the day-to-day operations of NLG chapters on their respective campus, and ensure successful programming on the local level. They will be required to connect with other interns from across the country, exchanging ideas on volunteering, programming, and working on collaborative projects. Students will be required to check-in with the Network Coordinators on a bi-weekly basis, and follow up with PRM during each semester. Ideal candidates will be executive board members of NLG chapters and active participants. They will be driven, creative, resourceful, and willing to invest themselves at least 10 hours per week to programming on their campuses. Students will be required to organize one virtual speaking event with a humanitarian expert.
